23 to 28 November 2008

Incorporating the 42nd South African Society for Animal Science Congress and 5th All-Africa Conference on Animal Production

WCAP 2008 UPDATE

The arrangements for the 10th World Conference on Animal Production are going well. The latest programme with the themes and topics for the plenary and parallel sessions can be viewed on the website at www.wcap2008.co.za.

Much time has been allocated to short paper theatre presentations in the broad disciplines of animal nutrition, genetics and animal breeding, livestock production systems, livestock products and physiology. There are also numerous symposia scheduled on the Wednesday (26th). The abstracts for short papers and posters must be submitted via the website. The abstract submission system is run by Wageningen Academic Press. Short papers that qualify will be published in a scientific journal.

Reminder: Researchers are invited to submit papers for consideration for selected oral theatre presentations for an open forum on 'CONCERNING CLIMATE CHANGE AND LIVESTOCK PRODUCTION'. Submit the abstract via the website. Should researchers wish to bring additional information to the attention of the Scientific Committee, send an e-mail message to wcap@up.ac.za or use the 'Contact us' link on the WCAP website.

Registrations are online via the website www.wcap2008.co.za. Accommodation reservations can also be made via the registration form.

There will be a number of exhibitors at the conference, the exhibition area will be the nerve centre of the Conference. This area will be the meeting place for delegates to network between sessions, enjoy lunch and refreshment breaks and view the Conference posters. For more information and a copy of the exhibitor manual please contact the Meeting and Exhibition Planner, Conferences et al by e-mail: deidre@iafrica.com or Tel: 27 21 880 2248 or Fax: 27 21 880 7895. The following companies and organisations have already committed to an exhibition booth:

We look forward to hosting you at this prestigious event.
